SUPER SIMPLE STEPS:

1. Use Black Goo to apply the Valentine's Day Silkscreen to the plate, allow to dry. Then, paint 2 coats of Pink around the design to create the background on the plate.
2. Use a detail brush to fill in the chocolates with one heavy coat of your desired colors, we used Cream, Brown, and Dark Brown.
3. Paint in the wrappers around the chocolates with one heavy coat of Black, then paint in the space around the wrappers with one heavy coat of Maroon.
4. Use Red to paint the rim of the box, and the sides of the box with 1 heavy coat. While that dries, paint the back of the plate with 3 coats of Red. Then, use a sponge to tap on a sponged edge on the top rim of the plate.
5. Use Black Goo to screen on quote to the side of the box.
